RESOLUTION FOR YAHOO 2010 SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

Human Rights Impacts of Yahoo Business in China

Whereas, mindful of the misuse of information technology by the Chinese Government to monitor electronic communications, to restrict Internet access and use, and to arrest and severely punish Internet users in China for expressing and exercising their free speech and free association rights, and

Whereas, recognizing the special responsibilities and obligations that these major abuses of human rights place on Yahoo doing business in China in ways that have contributed to these abuses, and,

Whereas, taking into account the fact that U.S. laws prohibit the involvement and support of U.S. companies in major human rights abuses taking place in foreign nations, and specifically prohibit actions by U.S. companies that contribute to major human rights abuses by law enforcement authorities in China,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the following human rights principles should be formally adopted by Yahoo to guide its business relating to its operations affecting China:

1. No information technology products or technologies will be sold, and no assistance will be provided to law enforcement authorities in China, that could contribute to human rights abuses. No user information will be provided, and no technological assistance will be made available, that would place individuals at risk of persecution based on their access or use of the Internet or electronic communications for free speech and free association purposes. Yahoo will support the efforts to assist users to have access to encryption and other protective technologies and approaches, so that their access and use of the Internet will not be restricted by the Chinese authorities.
2. Yahoo will establish a Human Rights Committee with the responsibility to review and approve all policies and actions that might affect human rights observance in countries where it does business. This Committee will include high-level officials of Yahoo and respected outside experts (especially with knowledge of China) who will help Yahoo understand the human rights impacts of their activities abroad, and frame approaches that will assure that Yahoo does not contribute to human rights abuses by foreign governments.
