RE: Board of Directors Statement

It is unfortunate that you repeated the same failed misleading resentment to the U.S. Security Exchange Committee. My proposal is a team work with other shareholders, and there is no "copy rights." In fact, I presented many similar proposals (such as to HP, Oracle, NetApp, SunEdison, Semantec) for my friends and received majority or near majority support from shareholders.

It is my sincere hope that you learn better corporate governance practice, from such as Google, and Chevron (see their boards' statement to positively respond to my proposals in 2010 with true policy change) or Intel and Microsoft (I withdraw my proposals because they accepted my advise and adopted my policy), and I am always open to help. Our shareholders cannot be manipulated easily. You still have time to revise your statement. However, if you refuse to improve our company's corporate governance and continue to refuse dialog with shareholders, the democratic tool gives shareholders to submit proposals every year as long as our company is listed and traded in the U.S. stock market.

Should you have any questions, please contact me at 1-925-643-5034 (phone/fax) or zhao.cpri@gmail.com.

Yours truly,

Jing Zhao, Shareholder
